What is a Representative Payee?

A Representative Payee is a person or organization appointed to manage your Social Security or SSI benefits when you're unable to do so yourself. We make sure your basic needs - like housing, food, and healthcare - are taken care of first.

Key Benefits

- Timely payment of bills
- Budgeting tailored to your needs
- Protection from financial exploitation
- Secure money management
- Peace of mind for you and your loved ones

Testimonials

“Handling money isn't easy for everyone, but [FCS] takes the time to help others and does a great job!

“The employees of Fitzmaurice are really awesome and really care about who they're taking care of.
